Evergreens.

Call the attention of readers to the card news. Hobbs, Walker & Co., in our paper bearing. These gentlemen are largely employed in the nursery business, and can fill in their line, from their own grounds, cheaply and splendidly. A walk through their extensive grounds of Messrs. Hobbs, Walker & Co. is a real treat, and we advise those who have pleasure in making a spare "go and see" for themselves.

The Cincinnati Gazette gives an account of the arrest of four persons, charged with the manufacture of bogus coins. The parties in Lawrence and Scioto counties, Ohio, the exception of one, who lived in Carter town, Ky. Their names are: Wm. S. S. S., J. Kelly, Geo. Wright, and J. S. S. S.

Persons of Weight were found two counterfeits, and upon his premises a quantity of engraving instruments, a quantity of ink. On the person of Shepherd several millions were found. At the house a machine for stamping, a lot of quarries prepared, and a large quantity of gold, were recovered. Wright and Shepherd supposed to have been the engravers and the operators, the former having been endowed for some time or more in a branch of States mint.

tention of our readers to the advertisement, in this column, of Messrs. Schilling & Co., who have recently moved to the corner of Fourth and Main streets, where they serve up all kinds of game, oysters, and also serve up meals at all hours, day and night. They keep the best of beer, ale, wine, liquors, and cigars, and of our readers, who wish to get a good meal for the inner man, will do well to call at this place.

MASSON Meeting Last Night.

At a convocation of the Masonic Fraternity of the City of Louisville, held at their Temple, on Wednesday evening, the 10th.

M. W. G. Master Robert Morris in the chair, aided by P. G. Masters Wingate, Tilden, and Seigrist, Hon. T. H. Crawford, and J. H.
Schroeder.

The object of the meeting was explained by the chairman; it was then addressed by the Hon. Henry Fitch, Hon. William Preston, and A. G. Hughes, Henry Wingate, and Philip Seigrist, Edwin Craig, G. W. Morris, and C.
D. Penabaker.

An enthusiasm was aroused, and the Brethren of the Mystic Tie, together with many of our good citizens, came up to the good work and subscribed liberally for the relief of the Temple, and the following gentlemen appointed a committee to wait upon our citizens to aid in the work:

Hon. James Guthrie, Hon. William Preston, Hon. Henry Fitch, Hon. Thomas H. Crawford, J. L. McCalland, Thomas A. Coleman, J. H.
Schroeder, Charles Tilden, Alexander Evans, Hon. Richard Atkinson, William Wingate, Edmund Crawford, Frank Tyson, George W. Morris, Edwin S. Craig, C. D.
Penabaker, Louis Rumm, George Meadows, Thomas T. Summers, Harry Hudson, and Brent Hopkins, of La Grange; which committee are requested to meet at the Temple this evening, the 11th, at seven p. m., for the purpose of organizing; and will report at an adjourned meeting of the Fraternity, on Wednesday evening, 17th inst.

ROBERT MORRIS.
JOHN V. COWLING, ROBERT OWEN.

THEATRE.—Well, we have seen the play of the "Three Fat Men," and are somewhat surprised that any paper should think it worthy of a long article, or a series of articles. It is a nondescript piece—made up from, or rather modelled after, some of Chaufin's pieces; and, consequently, wants the merit of originality; while, to supply that want, it has no positive merit of its own; it is without plot, and therefore, no play; it is full of nonsense, and, while it is laughable, it has many improbable incidents, and, therefore, goes beyond the province of the drama; but, as for vulgarity, as that word is commonly understood, or obscenity, as charged, we saw nothing of the kind, heard nothing—not even a stage-path, so common in these days. It is a harmless piece of folly, which none would care particularly about seeing a second time.

The sisters Western would have a better impression of their talents by appearing in a new kind of drama like "Green Buses." One great fault of the piece is, that it is very long, and grows tiresome. We see it to be repeated this evening. We presume all saw it last evening who were much about it, and will not see it again. You will find the criticisms and their assistants kind and courteous.

CHILDREN LOST.—It would be a good idea parents, if they will let their little children about the streets to get a card on them, that when they are lost, humane persons will be able to know to whom they belong—and, if not being able to tell their names, no one could take them to their "ma." A philanthropic gentleman started with this plan of their parents. It is to be hoped succeeded in finding them.

Mrs. McMAHON.—This distinguished lady actress, about whom so much has been said, will give a reading in our city on Friday evening, at Masonic Hall, to commence at eight o'clock. As Mrs. McMahon is the wife of an eminent member of the New York bar, we expect to see that class of gentlemen well represented on this the only occasion of Mrs.
McMahon's appearance in Louisville. Tickets will be had at D. P. Pauls & Co., 108 Main street, and Tripp & Craig's, 108 Fourth street.

THE CONCERT.—This evening, Miss Rosen-veiler will make her first appearance before a Louisville audience as a vocalist. The programme have not been told, but believe it to be a good one. The papers of Cincinnati—her country—are very warm in praise of this young singer for musical honors. We have no doubt her appeal to the Louisville public will be met by a full and appreciative audience.

A remarkable sale of old United States notes took place in Philadelphia on Tuesday evening. The collection was made by Mr. Edward Craig. Seventy-seven cents, of all dates, from that of 1791 down to 1870, were sold for an average sum of $128. The prices ranged from $1.35 to $20.60. The latter price was given for a rare die of the Washington cent of 1792.

THE JUVENILE SINGING CLASS.—Mr. Whipple commenced the winter season next week.
The proficiency shown at the recent exhibition proves that Mr. Whipple spares no efforts for the improvement of his pupils. The price of tuition is so remarkably small that none will be deterred on this account.

The nice, light, and excellent biscuit, made with Harley's Quick Yeast, is as "familiar" (in our mouths) as household words. We recommend it to our readers.

There is another trouble between France and England. The English papers are ferocious in their attacks on France. The cause of commotion is the presumed ill-treatment of Portugal by France.

A drunken man, in attempting to enter the Crystal Palace, on Tuesday night, fell with his face through the doors, cutting himself pretty severely.

The dark and gloomy weather is the order of the day just now. A little old fashioned sunshade would be just what "smiles and cheers."

H. H. B. Brown, Esq., the late Prosecutor in the Cincinnati Police Court, was buried yesterday—the whole police force in the city presented and participating in the ceremonies.

Priores, the American mare, did not win the Cambridge stakes, but modestly came in sixth. The winning horse was nowhere in the betting.

The name of Hon. A. G. Brown is placed at the head of several Mississippi papers, as a candidate for the Presidency in 1890.

Judge Blair has not yet given his decision in the case of Bateman vs. Thomas. As soon as he does, we will publish it.

The city scavengers were busy on Third street yesterday. They were much needed, and this popular thoroughfare has been greatly improved by their presence.

WANTED.—A newspaper carrier to get up a route on the Point. An active intelligent boy can make it a paying business.

Gas Extension.—The Gas Company have men at work extending the pipes down Main street, below Twelfth.

No arrests of any importance yesterday.
A few drunken men, and that is about all.

Our streets are in a shocking condition at present.

It will be seen from the advertisement, Birk's minsters will give a series of entertainments here, beginning Monday evening next.

Job printing of all kinds executed with promptness and dispatch. Call and examine specimens and learn prices.

River Intelligence.

RIVER AND WEATHER.—The river was at a stand last evening, with 3 feet 8 inches water, by the mark, in the canal. Boats drawing 4 feet 8 inches can work through without difficulty.
Weather still cloudy, and cold, but no more rain.

Boats at the wharf was quite brisk yesterday. The Tempest was taking on freight for Nashville. The Interchange and Osceola for New Orleans. Peachboats for White River, and Union for Bowling Green.

The Charley Bowen, a very pretty little boat, passed down yesterday, with a wharf-boat in tow, for Evansville.

BRIMES.—The Telegraph came in from Cincinnati with 11 casks soda ash, 130 bbls sulfate, 125 bbls caustic, 21 pkgs bones, 16 bbls coal, 666 bbls oil, 15 carboys oil vitriol, 110 pkgs rum, 105 lbs coffee, 30 half chests tea, 50 lbs soap, 35 pkgs spice, 30 bbls onions, 7 bbls apples.

The Mearns, from St. Louis, discharged a lot of hem and pig lead.

News.—The St. Louis Democrat, of the 9th inst, has the following items:

This river, and the uppers, are happily going down about 1/2 inch. The Mississippi declines more slowly than it rose, viz: six inches in 24 hours. The weather yesterday, was changeable. The sun broke through the clouds, and the river, after a long stay, affording a glorious scene, but alas, it hid itself again, and again we had dark, gloom, cold and showers.

The Paola left St. Paul on the 21st inst-ing, and weather very cold; river falling all the way down; 275 passengers on the round trip.

The Northern line packet Penabaker, having run all the season with the greatest regularity, in warm and cold weather, through bad report and good, has laid up for the season, and will start in this neighborhood. Coming down the river, when near Burlington, Iowa, the Penabaker had the misfortune to meet with an accident to her machinery. The T head broke, and the piston rod through the cylinder, and tearing some six inches of the cylinder off; while, to supply that want, it has no positive merit of its own; it is without plot, and
therefore, no play; it is full of nonsense,
and, while it is laughable, it has many
improbable incidents, and, therefore, goes

A Terrific Scene.—An exhibition of was given the other evening in Metropolitan Hall, Chicago. A colored light, in burning, set some of the scenery on fire. The Press says:

Those on the floor at first believed the flame a part of the representation, but when the front end of the gallery got a true idea of the case, and some one shouted, "The hall is on fire!" make for the door. To depict the panic, the scene was so arranged that the light of 3,500 people would be impossible.

Every seat on the main floor and on the galleries was full, and aisles were thronged, and the whole number attempted to make for the entrance last accessible. No one, for a moment or two, seemed to possess the power or the disposition to interpose any stay to the terror, or to dictate a course of action. The air rang with shouts, groans, screams, and cries. One young lady was seized with violent hysterics. The fire was fortunately subdued, without difficulty or loss.

A terrible and fatal explosion of a steam propeller occurred on Saturday, on North river, New York. The propeller Petrel burst her boiler, scattering the fragments of the boat in all directions, and causing a frightful and pitiful loss of life. The man was instantly killed, his mangled body falling through the upper deck of a neighboring steamer. E. D.
Barnard, who was standing on the deck, and pilot, was thrown overboard, and badly burnt about the face. He was rescued and taken to the City Hospital. He will probably recover. The remains of the boat were conveyed to the Bellevue dead house. He leaves a wife and two children. There were on board two other persons, whose names are not known, and who must have been killed.—New York Times.

The Paola left St. Paul on the 21st inst-ing, and weather very cold; river falling
trip.

LUNAR LIGHT!

THIS LAMP BURNS WITH A

pure, white, brilliant light, equal to gas, and is much cheaper than keros. The Lunar Light took the first premium at the last Mechanics' Fair in Louisville. One dollar's worth of Lunar Oil gives the light of $3 in worth of Lard Oil, $4 25 of Whale Oil, $9 45 of Burning Fluid, or $14 25 of Candles. Half a pound burns fifteen hours, costing about 55 cents, and gives a light equal to five or six star candles. Lunar Oil is not explosive, has no disagreeable smell, and is not liable to smoke. Lamps suitable for all purposes.

Call and see for yourselves, at No. 5 MASONIC TEMPLE, Fourth street.

NOTICE.

I OFFER FOR SALE THE NATION-AL HOTEL LEASE, with the Furniture therein, such as is requisite for a first-class Hotel. This Hotel is advantageously located; is one of the finest buildings in the west; handsomely furnished and in complete running order. The lease is very advantageous; the rent low, in fact almost nominal; the furniture new and in excellent condition.

I offer great inducements in the sale of this property; and a very propitious opportunity will be given to any one wishing to engage in the Hotel business. The Hotel is now carried on under the superintendence of Capt. C. Reynolds.

Louisville Bone Mill,
CORNER TWENTY-FIRST AND GRAYSON STS.

I BEG LEAVE TO INFORM ALL those engaged in farming and gardening that I keep constantly on hand a large quantity of this high

For pastures in Germany, and in the Eastern States of this country, this kind of Manure has been used for many years with the greatest success. The best way to use it is to strew from 4 to 500 pounds per acre in the fall, and plow as deep as practicable; for Trees, it is very profitable to use two pounds in the bottom of each hole; for Corn and Tobacco, put a handful in each hill; for Potatoes, Celery, &c., strew thinly in drills or furrows. One of the principal savings with this Manure is in the handling of it—the farmer being enabled to take at one load, in a two-horse wagon, the equivalent of twenty to twenty-five loads of horse or common stable Manure.

I am prepared to furnish any desired quantity at the shortest notice.
